GETTING THERE WITH YOUR PET

From Bangalore: 245–280 km
Suggested Route:
Bangalore Hassan Belur Chikmagalur
The route is comfortable for a road trip, with good highways for most of the journey before entering the more scenic hill sections.
Our suggestion:
Break the journey around Hassan or Belur for refreshments, a short walk and a comfortable toilet break for your pet.

PET NOTES

• Chikmagalur is well suited to dogs who enjoy nature, walks and outdoor exploration.
• The roads become increasingly winding and hilly as you approach the higher reaches, so pets prone to motion sickness may need extra care.
• Carry sufficient drinking water for your pet, especially during plantation walks and longer drives.
• Keep your pet leashed around viewpoints, roads, plantations and unfamiliar terrain.
• Some trails and viewpoints can have uneven, rocky or slippery surfaces — comfortable supervision is important.
• Avoid allowing pets to wander freely through coffee plantations or forested areas, where insects, plants and uneven terrain may pose risks.
• Start outdoor walks during the cooler morning or late-afternoon hours, particularly outside winter.
• Carry your pet's regular food, water bowl, leash, waste bags, basic first-aid supplies and any regular medication.
• For longer drives, plan regular breaks for water, toilet and movement rather than travelling continuously.
• Chikmagalur can receive heavy rain during the monsoon, making some outdoor trails muddy or slippery.
