GETTING THERE WITH YOUR PET

From Bangalore: 220–240 km
Suggested Route:
Bangalore Hassan Sakleshpur
The route is largely comfortable and straightforward, making Sakleshpur one of the easier hill-and-plantation getaways for a road trip with your pet.
Our suggestion:
Take a comfortable break around Hassan for refreshments, water and a short walk before continuing towards Sakleshpur.

PET NOTES

• Sakleshpur is particularly suited to dogs who enjoy nature, walks and exploring open spaces.
• The final approach towards Sakleshpur includes winding roads and hilly terrain, so pets prone to motion sickness may need extra care.
• Plantation and nature trails can be uneven, muddy or slippery, particularly after rain.
• Keep your pet leashed around roads, trails, plantations and unfamiliar areas.
• Avoid allowing pets to wander freely through plantations or forested areas, where insects, plants and uneven terrain may pose risks.
• Carry sufficient drinking water during walks and outdoor excursions.
• Plan longer walks during the cooler morning or late-afternoon hours.
• During the monsoon, expect wet and muddy trails and carry a towel or rain protection for your pet.
• For the road journey, plan regular breaks for water, toilet and movement.
• Carry your pet's regular food, water bowl, leash, waste bags, basic first-aid supplies and any regular medication.
